504 Main St. Dial

Johnstown, Pa.

We, the Seniors of 1959, present the Mainliner to you, the readers, for your recollection of the past year. We hope you will enjoy reading and looking through this book as much as we have enjoyed putting together our thoughts and ideas.

The transition from the old school building to the new Rockwood Joint High School is only the beginning of the transition which will take place in our lives upon being graduated. As we leave our undergraduate days behind us, we look forward to the future in much the same manner as you look forward to happy years in the new R. J. H. S.

Left table (L-R): G. Miller, C. Weimer, P. J. Miller, J. B. Dumbauld, O. Nicklow, E. Sechler, K. Pyle, C. Trout, E. Rhodes, J. Shaffer, M. Illar. Right table: J. I. Gindlesperger, J. Phillippi, G. The Seniors wish to express their deepest and most sincere appreciation to the Joint Board of Directors, whose faithful services have gained for the students of Rockwood, a new million dollar high school.

The persons who have made the school a reality, have been unwearied in their efforts and all the members of the Rockwood Joint High School will reap the benefits of their labor.

We can only thank them for the guidance they have given us during the past 4 years, by making the best use of our lives and working hard to help others choose the right way.

In behalf of the Rockwood Joint School Board and the members of the faculty I wish to congratulate the students of the Class of 1959 for their attainments which have been required in meeting the graduation requirements of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the Rockwood Joint High School.

So far you have led the protected life provided for boys and girls by your parents and by society at large. Many of you will assume the responsibilities of manhood and womanhood and earn your livelihood from now on. Others will seek additional education at colleges, hospitals or trade schools.

Wherever your path may lead you, seek to learn along the way, for knowledge is power, and power for good in the service of mankind is the Master's wish from all his people.

The satisfaction coming from worthy achievement always leads to a life of perpetual happiness.

To these ends we wish you God Speed and the best in good fortune.

Mrs. Ansell and Mr. Gard

This year's edition of THE MAINLINER emerges into the publishing world amid turbulent times, as the boys and girls, whose pictures and literary efforts decorate its pages, go out to meet the uncertainties of our world. Between its covers this book packs a host of hopes and dreams, of memories, of laughter and of regrets. Here are the classrooms, the playing fields, the examination days, the duties and the dances. Here are the boys and girls—the men and women—who for a few magic years endeavored to enrich themselves amid the high empires of learning. Within these pages they have left a little of their imperishable youth, and in years to come they will return to these pages—to find that youth.

We here at Rockwood High School hope that we have given you the tools that will help you build for peace in our time. We who remain within these halls will follow—in our thoughts.

The Rohistat has now completed thirty-seven years of bringing news, features, jokes and personalities to the students, teachers, and parents of the Rockwood Area.

During the past school year, the main purpose of the Rohistat—to enable students to bring out in the open their talents to write—was perfectly carried out. Members of the staff and reporters alike were sent on assignments that helped them meet many new people, in and out of school. This year there were thirty-one reporters and thirteen members on the staff. Some of the jobs that were split up among them are: typing, copy-reading, making headlines and proof reading.

In the previous years, the Rohistat has become a member of the Quill and Scroll, an honorary society for high school journalists, and the Columbia Press Association. Top honors went to the Rohistat at the Pitt Conference in 1955 and 1956.

The Rohistat is issued free of charge to the students, and is financed by the Rockwood Joint High School Board of Directors and by advertisers.

Next year a new staff will carry on the work of the Rohistat. Its task will be to make the Rohistat a more outstanding paper for the students of the Rockwood Joint High School.

The task of telling the story of the school year falls to the members of the yearbook staff. The staff has tried to recapture, as honestly and dramatically as possible, the 1958-59 school year and present its part in your life in the Mainliner. When finished, the yearbook represents a very real investment and serves as a memory book of one of the best and happiest periods of our lives. By recapturing the principal events of our high school days, it holds lasting impressions of the friends we have made.

We, the yearbook staff, express our appreciation to all those who have made the Mainliner a success and we would especially like to thank our advisor, Mr. Clay, for his help and guidance.

Class Will

We, the members of the senior class of Rockwood Joint High School, being in good health and in a sane state of mind and realizing that the days in our beloved school are numbered, do make our final will and testament.

ARTICLE I

Section I—To Mr. Gard and Mr. Tipton, our principals, we bequeath a senior class that doesn't try to drop at least one subject during the entire year.

Section II—To Mr. Forbes we bequeath a homeroom which will take their work seriously.

Section III—To Mr. Critchfield we bequeath a homeroom which will wait until lunch to eat.

Section IV—To Mrs. Broderick we bequeath a senior class who will try to use correct English at all times.

Section V—To Mr. Lenz we bequeath a Latin class who will study their Latin instead of "goof off."

Section VI—To Mrs. O'Donnell we bequeath a Commercial class who will make better than an "F" in Shorthand II.

Section VII—To Mr. Ortman we bequeath a gym class who enjoys his Physical Education tests and exercises.

Section VIII—To Mr. Costantino we bequeath a girl's health class who will like his "rest periods."

Section IX—To Mr. Berkebille we bequeath a Physics class who can understand the problems he gives them.

Section X—To Mr. Illar we bequeath a senior class who will not try to buy candy during study halls.

Section XI—To Mr. Dice we bequeath a chorus without any talkers or gum chewers.

Section XII—To Mr. Clay we bequeath a Consumer Science class who will listen to what he says instead of talk.

ARTICLE II

Section I—To the members of the junior class we bequeath the coke machine in hopes that they are permitted to keep it.

Section II—To the members of the sophomore class we bequeath our ability to get into trouble.

Section III—To the members of the freshman class we bequeath our ability for not studying.

Section IV—To the faculty we bequeath our deepest and most sincere appreciation for their respect and interest in us.

Section V—To the bus drivers we bequeath a bus load of kids who will try to be quiet, at least until they reach school.

Section VI—To the janitors we bequeath a group of seniors who won't throw any paper on the floor.

ARTICLE III

I, Joyce Anderson, will Mrs. Broderick all the dependent and independent clauses she can handle, because I hate them.

I, Dorothy Ansell, will my Consumer Science book to Dorothy Pritts.

I, Lee Ansell, will all the fun I had in the senior class to my cousin Ron Shumaker.

I, Louise Ansell, will all the fun I had in school to my sister Ruth.

I, Roger Beachy, will my ability to judge women to Mr. Critchfield.

I, Harold Benford, will my stupidity to anyone who doesn't have anymore brains than I have.

I, John Berkey, will my misfortune of having to take Physics to anyone who wants it.

I, Merle Carolus, will my ability to get along with teachers to my brother Kenneth.

I, Gene Countryman, will "all" my combs to Joan Bittner.

I, Charmaine Critchfield, will my ponytail to anyone who has the patience to grow it and I will my future to Paul.

I, Charles Engleka, will my 6' 6" (what little there is of it) to Terry Miller.

I, Larry Everhart, will my ability to stay in bed and be late for school to James Henry.

I, Donna Feters, will my position on first flute to Ethel Bittner.

Class Will

I, Norma Gary, will my natural curly hair to Becky Laus.

I, Heather Gerhard, will my future to Dick Harah.

I, Shirley Goller, will my fun in cheerleading to all future cheerleaders.

I, Dick Harah, will my position on the Varsity Basketball team to my brother Frankie.

I, Tolliver Harrill, will my ability to never do anything right to Wilbur Leslie.

I, George Hay, will my position of first trombone to Jim Peters.

I, Rita Hay, will my seat on the bus to anyone that can find it.

I, Dorothy Heining, will my ride home on the bus to any turtle that can crawl that slow.

I, Wendell Hileman, will my sideburns to my brother Howard and I will myself to Kay.

I, Bob Hoover, will my ability to get detention to anyone who wants it.

I, Glenda Keefer, will my high school days to my sister Wanda, may she use them more wisely than I did.

I, John King, will my ability to argue with Mr. Forbes to Ross Gary.

I, Mary King, will my ability to talk so much to my sister Louise.

I, Virginia Knopsnyder, will my ability to drive a Ford to Donald Thompson.

I, Sonny Kreger, don't will anything. I must keep what little I have.

I, Margaret Laskoski, will my natural curly hair to anyone who wants it.

I, Marian Laskoski, will my lack of memory to anyone who wishes to forget.

I, Marlene Latuch, will my books to anyone who wants them.

I, Ben Leer, will my seat on the bus to anyone who wants it.

I, Pat Livengood, will my position as Editor of the Rohistat to Arlene Phillippi.

I, Clair Lyons, will my dislike for school to anyone who will enjoy it, because, I didn't.

I, Karen Lyons, will my senior year studies to Louella to do with as she pleases and also my "A" in history.

I, Mary Lyons, will my ability to forget things to Jeanne Moore.

I, Loretta Lytle, will all my time to Hilton.

I, Nancy Metheney, will all my good times in high school to my brother Don.

I, Sally Miller, will all the happiness I had during my four years of high school to my cousin Vina Kay, in hopes that she will enjoy it as much as I did.

I, Peggy Nicklow, will all the fun I had in high school to Patsy Turney.

I, Louise Peck, will my ability to put the windows down in the bus to Sally Putman.

I, Patti Pletcher, will my future to Jack.

I, Juanita Pritts, will my new pair of shoes and my peroxide hair to Sharon "Chop" Wahl.

I, Richard Queer, will my brilliance in school to my sister.

I, Larry Ream, will my good times in Ag. class to my cousin Terry.

I, Carol Reeves, will my ability to act crazy on the bus to Jean Gary and Bruce Struckoff.

I, Jean Ringer, will my ability to study to James Henry, he needs it.

I, Juanita Ringer, after completing nurse's training, will all my time and every thing I own to Delbert.

I, Roger Romesberg, will my ability to get into trouble while in the senior class to George Sanner.

I, Clarence Saylor, will my ability in Agriculture to my cousin Clair.

I, Mary Schrader, will all the time I spent in Home Ec. making favors for the F.H.A. Convention to Mrs. Witt.

I, Delbert Sechler, will all my time and everything I own to Juanita.

I, Phyllis Stahl, will my ability for wrecking cars to Gail Sipe.

I, Donna Sterner, will my ponytail to my sister Delenna.

I, DeAnna Walker, will my future to Dale Nicklow.

I, Lester Weyand, will the '48 Chevrolet to anyone who wants to buy it at Matt's Used Car Lot.

I, Carole Whipkey, will all the good times I had in Band and Chorus to my brother Blair.

I, Paul Wiltrout, will my ability to play basketball to my brother.

by Charmaine Critchfield.

Class Prophecy

Just the other day, June 10, I received a post card in the mail requesting that I, and my family, be present at Trent Park on Sunday, June 16, 1969, at 12:00 o'clock P.M. for a reunion of the Class of '59. I was excited about going because I hadn't seen all of my fifty-nine classmates since the time I graduated from Rockwood Joint High School in 1959. It doesn't seem possible that 10 years have gone by so quickly. It just seems as though yesterday we were trampling into our homerooms greeting each other or throwing friendly insults to one another.

Today is the day! Today my family and I are going to Trent Park. After we came home from church, I got our picnic lunch ready for the reunion. Finally we were on our way.

I thought I would be the first one there—as I left at 11:00—but when I arrived, I was surprised to see Shirley Goller. After we said our "hellos," Shirley said she has been teaching at Rockwood for six years and enjoys her job very much.

While we were talking about the good old school days, Virginia Knopsnyder and Carole Whipkey arrived and joined in the conversation. Both Carole and Virginia are air-line stewardesses for P. A. A., which now uses Jet Passenger Planes. They said their pilot is Robert Hoover. Bob couldn't come today, because he had to make a flight to Europe for Dick Harah, another classmate of mine. Dick is a millionaire, and owns the Pan American Airlines. He also owns the Harah Hospital in Pittsburgh. Heather Gerhard works here as an X-ray Technologist, and Donna Feters is a medical secretary. Sally Miller and Charmaine Critchfield are nurses at the hospital. They are all very happy with their jobs, but I was sad to hear that they couldn't come today.

It is now 12:00 o'clock and I decided to set my food on the table. Soon I heard a big truck coming. Lester Weyand is driving, and Richard Queer and Kenneth Judy are with him. All three are truck drivers for the tri-state area. Behind them, Paul Wiltrout, Donald Hay, and Merle Carolus, who are mechanics, enter the park merrily.

Who is getting out of the car beside them? As they come closer, I see it is Rita Hay, the famous clothes designer, and Norma Jean Gary, who fulfilled her ambition to become a police-woman.

Look who is here! It is the "shorty" of the class, Charles Engleka, who measures a neat 6' 6". He is a professional basketball player for the Boston Celtics. From Charles, I learn that Tolliver Harrill, is manager of the textile industry in Boston, and Roger Beachy is now a forester, Pat Livengood and Patti Pletcher, who both are private secretaries for a big corporation, could not come.

We now start to eat. The toastmistress, Marian Laskoski, our former senior class president and who is now a Commercial teacher, says the grace. Her sister, Margaret, is a homemaker—a very good one, too. She is sitting beside Louise Ansell and Louise Peck, telephone operators for the Bell Telephone Company, and they are making out very well in that field.

Across from them, Roger Romesberg is sitting. Roger is top Engineer and the manager of a big engineering concern. Lee Ansell, who is sitting next to Roger, is a carpenter. He has been building skyscrapers, churches, and schools for six years. His best friend and classmate, John Berkey, could not come today, because he is in the Air Force and is stationed across the Atlantic. Harold Kreger also joined the Air Force when he graduated and has made a career of it.

Clair Lyons is just arriving. He is driving his Ford Test Truck. Clair has been working for the Ford Company since 1960. Harold Benford is in the truck with him. He is a mechanic for the Ford Company. Clair informed us that Mary Jane King, Marlene Latuch, Peggy Nicklow, Glenda Keefer, Phyllis Stahl, and Mary June Lyons are all secretaries of the company. They will arrive later in the afternoon.

As I begin eating, someone asks for the salt. There before me is Karen Lyons, the famous Free Lance Commercial Artist. Karen said while she was on her last assignment in Asia, she talked with Dorothy Ansell. Dorothy is a traveling missionary. I hand Karen the salt and as I do I see Carol Reeves. She tells me she is the secretary at her husbands shoe factory in Cleveland, Ohio, and Mary Schrader does the bookkeeping and filing at the factory. Joyce Anderson, sitting beside Carol, is a very efficient worker in the factory.

All of the food is very good. I wonder who made this pineapple salad I'm eating. Donna Sterner, who is sitting beside me, tells me that Delbert Sechler brought it from his home. He is an art teacher at the Rockwood Joint High School where Donna teaches music. Our conversation is interrupted by a clear soft spoken voice. I look up to see none other than Wendell Hileman, the famous radio announcer and engineer for Pittsburgh, KQV. He has had this job for five years. Wendell is announcing that there are 150 present at the reunion, and he hopes that by the end of the afternoon more will be present. On one of Wendell's shows Ben Leer made a campaign speech for President of the United States.

After a wonderful picnic, everyone gets into different groups to discuss their problems. The farmers are talking to Larry Ream, the county agent in agriculture, about their milk cows. The farmers are John King, George Hay, and Clarence Saylor.

Now we will leave the farmers to their discussion and go to another group. Here are many secretaries. Among them are Nancy Metheney and Dorothy Heining. They are secretaries for the President in Washington, D. C.

I hear giggling and laughing children. I look over and see Gene Countryman and Larry Everhart telling all the children funny jokes that they heard in the Navy. Both Larry and Gene are making a career in the Navy.

Now I will join the group that I am interested in—Nurses. Here I find Juanita Ringer, Juanita Pritts, and Jean Ringer, talking about their children. Juanita Ringer is the head nurse in the Somerset Community Hospital in Somerset, and Juanita Pritts, Jean, and myself are nurses in the same hospital. It seemed as if we had only talked for about fifteen minutes, but when I looked at my watch, the time was 4:45 P.M. Golly, the time flew! I decided that I had better leave because I go on duty at 7:00 P.M.

When I had finished saying "good-bye" to my former classmates, I gathered up all my food and called my family together. At last we were on our way, leaving my classmates behind. It was a wonderful day, just seeing the faces of my classmates again, but I am glad I was a part of the memorable occasion.

Built to Serve You . . .

Pictured above, Kurtz Bros. factory and warehouses along with the Pittsburgh Branch and Kurtz Bros. Eastern Division occupy over 4½ acres of floor space. In Clearfield, under one roof, your school annuals are printed, bound and cased into covers . . . Truly a plant built to serve your printing requirements . . . "Our Word is Our Bond."
